

SEC MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 08

Series of 2023

TO: ALL CONCERNED

SUBJECT: SECURING & EXPANDING CAPITAL FOR FARMS & AGRI-BUSINESS RELATED MODERNIZATION SCHEMES (SEC FARMS)

WHEREAS, the Philippine Development Plan 2023–2028 (PDP) aims to reinvigorate job creation and accelerate poverty reduction;

WHEREAS, the expansion of the agricultural industry is vital to meeting these PDP objectives;

WHEREAS, one of the key strategies of the PDP is to modernize agriculture and agri-business to raise overall productivity, move Philippine products up the value chain, promote diversification and ensure food security;

WHEREAS, the Department of Agriculture, in recognition of the vital role of the agricultural sector in the Philippine economy, focuses its key strategies on farm clustering & consolidation, modernization, and industrialization to achieve its battle cry, "Masaganang Agrikultura, Maunlad na Ekonomiya";

WHEREAS, the establishment of agri-business industries and development of markets for agricultural products, through farm and agri-business modernization involving the application of innovative technology, require huge capital from both the public and private sectors;

WHEREAS, raising of capital from the private sector for agri-business project may involve the sale or offer for sale or distribution of securities to investors, which may reach Overseas Filipino Workers through the utilization of fintech and other digital technology;

WHEREAS, Subsection 8.1 of the Securities Regulation Code ("SRC") prohibits the selling or offering for distribution of securities within the Philippines without a registration statement duly filed with and approved by the Commission;

WHEREAS, Subsection 12.1 of the SRC mandates that securities required to be registered under Subsection 8.1 shall be registered through the filing by the issuer in the main office of the Commission of a sworn registration statement with respect to such securities, in such form and containing such information and documents as the Commission shall prescribe;

WHEREAS, Subsection 12.6 of the SRC directs the Commission to declare the registration statement effective or rejected, unless the application is allowed to amend the registration statement within forty-five (45) days after the date of filing of the registration statement, or such later date to which the issuer has consented;

WHEREAS, the Revised SRC Rule 68 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations of the SRC mandates that external auditors and auditing firms (if engaged) by Issuers of Securities which have sold securities pursuant to a registration statement under Section 12 of the SRC should be in the Group A category and duly accredited by the Commission.

WHEREAS, Section 72.1 of the SRC states that, for purposes of its rules or regulations, the Commission may classify persons, securities and other matter within its jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes of persons, securities, or matter.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the foregoing and other pertinent provisions of the SRC and its Implementing Rules and Regulations, the Commission hereby adopts the following guidelines for registration of securities for agri-business companies by using form SEC FARMS.

Section 1. Simplified Form for Registration - An agri-business corporation seeking to register its securities may use SEC FARMS in lieu of the current SEC Form 12-1 subject to the following conditions:

- i. A corporation has to be established specific for an agri-business project. All subscribed shares of such corporation must be fully paid.
- ii. The amount of securities to be registered shall not exceed the amount of Five Hundred Million Pesos (P500,000,000.00) per project or such other amount the Commission may prescribe, applied in a single or series of registration.
- iii. The amount from the proceeds of the securities to be registered and offered represents at most fifty percent (50%) of the total project cost.
- iv. A registrant corporation, in order to use the SEC FARMS, must be able to demonstrate that:
  - a. It has already secured and allocated as seed money for the project an amount representing the other fifty percent (50%) of the total project cost. This latter amount shall be put in escrow account or such other arrangement acceptable to the Commission; or
  - b. If the registrant corporation has already started the project, the total of the actual percentage of accomplishment of the project and the funds in possession of the registrant corporation specifically allocated for the project shall be not less than fifty percent (50%) of the total project cost.
- v. A registrant corporation may offer its registered securities in a single offer period or in a continuing offer period based on a reasonable and acceptable schedule but not to exceed one year from the date of the issuance of the Order of Registration and Permit to Sell.
- vi. A registrant corporation shall submit to the Commission a monthly report on the progress of the project and the offer, indicating the amount raised during the month and a running balance of the total amount raised since the start of the offer.

- vii. A registrant corporation shall secure from its stockholder/s, controlling person/s or such other person/s as may be allowed by the Commission, a guarantee for the purpose of covering any shortfall in the target amount intended to be raised from the public. The guarantee shall be in such form and manner approved by the Commission.
- viii. A registrant corporation shall engage an underwriter unless it is able to demonstrate that it has the ability to sell all or substantially all of its securities to the public.

Section 2. Shortened Period to Declare Registration Statement Effective - The Commission undertakes to declare the registration statement effective or rejected within twenty-eight (28) days after the date of filing of its SEC FARMS, unless the applicant consents to such later date and the applicant is allowed to amend the registration statement. Any amendment filed prior to the effective date of the registration of its securities shall recommence the twenty-eight (28) day period within which the Commission shall act on the application;

Section 3. Requirements for External Auditor and Financial Reporting - Notwithstanding the requirements under Part I (3)(B)(b)(I)(b)(9) of the Revised SRC Rule 68, an agri-business company that would register its securities through SEC FARMS may engage the services of Group B SEC accredited External Auditors or Auditing Firms under the following conditions:

- i. The engagement of a Group B SEC accredited External Auditor or Auditing Firm shall be allowed for a period of five (5) fiscal years beginning from the Fiscal Year after the Commission's approval of the issuer application for registration of its securities;
- ii. On the sixth (6th) year, the Issuer will be required to engage a Group A SEC accredited External Auditor or Auditing Firm.
- iii. Notwithstanding the foregoing conditions, the Commission may require anytime the engagement of a Group A SEC accredited External Auditor or Auditing Firm as it deems necessary and consistent with public interest and the protection of investors.

Also, notwithstanding the requirements on the submission of Financial Statements under PART II (5) (A)(i) to (vi) of Revised SRC Rule 68, the Commission may allow a registrant company using SEC FARMS to file Financial Statements covering a period less than what is required under the mentioned Rules, provided that:

- i. The registrant corporation is able to show that the officers who will be involved in the operation of the agri-business activities relating to the project have a three-year related experience; or
- ii. The registrant corporation is able to show that it has a related corporation, either as parent, subsidiary or affiliate that is involved in the same or similar business activity for the last three-years.

Section 4. Other Applicable Requirements - All other existing requirements under the SRC and the Revised Corporation Code (RCC) and their implementing rules and regulations, and other applicable laws, rules and regulations, circulars and orders of the Commission shall be strictly complied with by agri-business companies with registered securities.

Section 5. Penalty Clause - Any violation of the requirements and conditions set herein, the SRC and RCC and their implementing rules and regulations, and other applicable laws, rules and regulations, circulars and orders of the Commission shall be penalized accordingly.

Section 6. Effectivity - This Memorandum Circular shall take effect immediately after its publication in two (2) newspapers of general circulation in the Philippines.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
REGISTRATION STATEMENT
Securing & Expanding Capital for
Farms & Agri-business Related Modernization Schemes
(SEC FARMS)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Pursuant to SEC Res. No. 08, s. of 2023, agri-business companies may use SEC FARMS for registration of its securities that are sold or offered for sale pursuant to Sections 8 and 12 of the Securities Regulation Code ("Code" or "SRC"). The amount of securities to be registered shall not exceed Five Hundred Million Pesos (Php500,000,000.00) per project or such other amount the Commission may prescribe, applied in a single or series of registration. The use of SEC FARMS is without prejudice to the right of the Commission to require such other information or documents as it may prescribe, consistent with the interest of the general public and for the protection of investors.
2. Under Section 13.1(b) of the Securities Regulation Code ("SRC"), the Commission may reject Registration Statement which on its face is incomplete. Notwithstanding the said provision, Sec. 14.2 of the SRC states that an amendment filed prior to the effectivity date of the Registration Statement ("RS") shall recommence the twenty-eight (28) day period within which the Commission shall act on a RS. Thus, should the company be amendable to extending the 28-day processing period (by executing a letter consenting to the processing time of the application to enable the company to amend its RS) the Market and Securities Regulation Department ("MSRD") shall be constrained to elevate the application based on the existing RS on file, to enable MSRD to comply with the said processing period mandated under Section 12.6 of the SRC.
3. Attention is directed to Revised SRC Rule 68, on the Financial Statement requirements. Prior to preparation of their filings, registrants should also review the provisions of SRC Rule 72.1, "General Rules and Regulations for Filing of SEC Forms with the Securities and Exchange Commission." Definitions contained in "Annex B" and Revised SRC Rule 68, to the extent they are not defined herein, shall govern the meanings of similar terms used therein.
4. The registration statement shall be signed by the registrant's chief executive officer, its chief operating officer, its chief financial officer, its controller, its chairman of the board, its corporate secretary or persons performing similar functions.
5. The name of each person who signs the registration statement shall be typed or printed beneath his/her signature. Any person who occupies more than one of the specified position shall indicate the capacity in which he signs the registration statement. At least one (1) copy of the documents filed shall be manually signed and the unsigned copies shall be conformed.
6. Every amendment to a registration statement shall be signed by the persons specified in Section 12.4 of the Code or by any executive officer duly authorized by the Board of Directors. The final prospectus shall, however, be signed by all required signatories under Section 12.4 of the Code.
7. Three (3) copies of the complete SEC FARMS shall be filed including exhibits and all other papers and documents filed as part thereof. All general instructions as to financial statements, exhibits are to be omitted from the registration statement in all cases. If any of such item is inapplicable, or the answer thereto is in the negative, a statement to that effect shall be made.

8. In case of withdrawal of a registration statement, fifty percent (50%) of the filing fee paid shall be forfeited and not be allowed for future application.
9. In the event that the registration statement is rejected pursuant to Section 13 of the Code, the filing fee paid thereon shall be forfeited.
10. Confidential Treatment of Information filed with the Commission, Any request for confidentiality<sup>1</sup> will be presented to Commission En Banc prior to the issuance of the pre-effective letter
11. How to use this form: Put  inside the box to mark a box and provide any information describe therein, if required.

1. The following is a summary of all the risks that apply to the Issuer and/or this offering. You should carefully consider these risks prior to investing in this offering.

Operating History:

The Issuer has limited or no operating history because the Issuer may have operated for only a short period of time, it has produced little or no profit. There is no assurance that it will ever produce a profit.

Limited Resources/Losses (select all that apply):

	The Issuer has limited resources and will not be able to continue operating without the proceeds from this offering. It is possible that the proceeds from this offering and other resources may not be sufficient for the Issuer to continue to finance operations. The Issuer expects to continue to experience losses from operations and it cannot be predicted when or if the Issuer will become profitable. If the Issuer achieves profitability, it may not be sustainable.
	The Issuer has incurred losses since inception and may incur future losses. The Issuer has not yet generated a profit from operations. As of the date of the most recent financial statements, the Issuer had an accumulated deficit of

However, the Issuer can mitigate said risk by:

Key Personnel

	The Issuer success depends substantially on the services of a small number of individuals
	The Issuer may be harmed if it loses the services of these people and it is not able to attract and retain qualified replacements
	The Issuer’s officers, directors, managers and key persons will continue to have substantial ownership and control over the Issuer after the offering
	The Issuer does not maintain key person life insurance on those individuals on whom the Issuer’s success depends. The loss of any of these individuals could have a substantial negative impact on the Issuer and your investments.

However, the Issuer can mitigate said risk by:

Inexperience Management (select all that apply):

	None of the Issuer's officers, directors, and/or managers has managed a company in this industry. The Issuer's ability to operate successfully may depend on its ability to attract and retain qualified personnel, who may be in great demand.
	None of the Issuer's officers, directors, and/or managers has experience in managing a development stage of modern farm
	Not Applicable

However, the Issuer can mitigate said risk by:

Past Failures

	Prior to organizing the Issuer, one or more of the Issuer's officers, directors, and/or managers operated a business in which shareholders lost part or all of their investment. The Issuer's ability to operate successfully may depend on its officers, directors, and/or managers to succeed where they have failed before.

However, the Issuer can mitigate said risk by:

Government Regulations:

The Issuer must comply with local and national rules and regulations. If the Issuer fails to comply with a rule or regulation it may be subject to fines or other penalties, or its permit or license may be revoked or suspended. The Issuer may have to stop operation and you may lose your entire investment.

Dilution (select all that apply):

	The price of a share in this offering is significantly higher than the book value of the securities. By participating in this offering, you will incur immediate and substantial dilution of the book value of your investment.
	To the extent outstanding options or warrants to purchase securities are exercised, new Investors will incur further dilution of the book value of their investment
	There are no limits in place to restrict the Issuer's ability to issue securities in the future. If the Issuer issues additional securities, by participating in this offering you may experience further dilution of the value of your investment.

No Existing Market

	Because there is no market for the Issuer's securities, you may not be able to sell your securities or recover any part of your investment. You should not invest unless you can afford to hold your investment indefinitely.

Offering Price

	The offering price of the Issuer's securities has been arbitrarily set and accordingly should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Issuer.
--	--

Underwriter Requirement

	The Issuer may be exempted with respect to the requirement of an underwriting agreement, provided, that the Issuer can show sufficient proof that it has the ability to sell all or substantially all of its securities to the public.

Lack of Investor Control (select if applicable):

	The Issuer's officers, directors, managers, and/or key persons will continue to have substantial control over the Issuer after the offering. As such, you may have little or no ability to influence the affairs of the Issuer.
--	---

Determination of the Offer Price

Discuss the various factors considered in determining the offering price of the securities for registration.

The following factors may be relevant to the price at which the securities are being offered: after-tax earnings, price/earnings multiple, net tangible book value per share.

Dilution

Where common equity securities are being registered and there is a substantial disparity between the public offering price and the effective cash cost to officers, directors, promoters and affiliated persons of common equity acquired by them in transactions during the past five (5) years, or which they have the right to acquire, and the registrant is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 17 of the Code immediately prior to filing of the registration statement, there shall be included a comparison of the public contribution under the proposed public offering and the effective cash contribution of such persons. In such cases, and where common equity securities are being registered by a registrant that has had losses in each of its last three fiscal years, or from inception if shorter, and there is a material dilution of the purchasers' equity interest, the following shall be disclosed:

- (1) The net tangible book value per share before and after the distribution. For this purpose, net tangible book value means total assets (exclusive of copyrights, patents, goodwill, research and development costs, pre-operating costs, and similar intangible assets) minus total liabilities.
- (2) The amount of the increase in such net tangible book value per share attributable to the cash payments made by purchasers of the shares being offered; and
- (3) The amount of the immediate dilution from the public offering price which will be absorbed by such purchasers.

The following does not purport to be a complete listing of all the rights, obligations, and privileges attaching to or arising from the Offer Shares. Some rights, obligations, or privileges may be further limited or restricted by other documents and subject to final documentation. Prospective investors are enjoined to perform their own independent investigation and analysis of the Company and the Offer Shares. Each prospective investor must rely on its own appraisal of the Company and the Offer Shares and its own independent verification of the information contained herein and any other investigation it may deem appropriate for the purpose of determining whether to invest in the Offer Shares and must not rely solely on any statement or the significance, adequacy, or accuracy of any information contained herein. FINANCIAL INFORMATION*Management Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) or Plan of Operation

Registrants that have not had revenues from operations in each of the last two fiscal years, or the last fiscal year and any interim period in the current fiscal year for which financial statements are furnished in the disclosure document, shall in addition to applicable items under subparagraph (2), provide the information in subparagraph (1) hereof.

(1) Plan of Operation

Describe the plan of operation for the next twelve (12) months. This description should include such matters as:

- (a) a discussion of how long the registrant can satisfy its cash requirements and whether it will have to raise additional funds in the next twelve (12) months;
- (b) a summary of any product research and development that the registrant will perform for the term of the plan;
- (c) any expected purchase or sale of plant and significant equipment; and
- (d) any expected significant changes in the number of employees.

(2) Management's Discussion and Analysis

MD&A helps explain financial results. A reader of the MD&A should understand the financial results of the registrant's business as discussed in the "Business" section. It shall provide information with respect to liquidity, capital resources and other information necessary to understanding the registrant's financial condition and results of operation.

The discussion and analysis shall focus specifically on material events and uncertainties known to management that would cause reported financial information not to be necessarily indicative of future operating results or of future financial condition. This would include descriptions and amounts of matters that would have an impact on future operations and have not had an impact in the past, and matters that have had an impact on reported operations and are not expected to have an impact upon future operations.

For both full fiscal years and interim periods, disclose the company's and its majority-owned subsidiaries' top five (5) key performance indicators. It shall include a discussion of the manner by which the company calculates or identifies the indicators presented on a comparable basis.

(a) Full fiscal years

Discuss the registrant's financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations for each of the last three fiscal years. If the registrant's financial statement shows losses from operations, explain the causes of these losses and the steps the registrant has taken or is taking to address these causes. This discussion should address the past and future financial condition and results of operation of the registrant, with particular emphasis on the prospects for the future. The discussion should also address those key variable and other qualitative and quantitative factors which are necessary to an understanding and evaluation of the registrant. If material, the registrant should disclose the following:

- (i) Any known trends or any known demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will result in or that are reasonably likely to result in the registrant's liquidity increasing or decreasing in any material way. The registrant shall indicate balance sheet conditions or income or cash flow items that it believes may be indicators of its liquidity condition. The following conditions shall be indicated: whether or not the registrant is having or anticipates having within the next twelve (12) months any cash flow or liquidity problems; whether or not the registrant is in default or breach of any note, loan, lease or other indebtedness or financing arrangement requiring it to make payments; whether or not a significant amount of the registrant's trade payables have not been paid within the stated trade terms. If a material deficiency is identified, the course of action that the registrant has taken or proposes to take to remedy the deficiency should also be indicated. The registrant should identify and separately describe internal and external sources of liquidity, and briefly discuss any sources of liquid assets used.

The term "liquidity" refers to the ability of an enterprise to generate adequate amount of cash to meet its needs for cash. Liquidity generally must be discussed on both a long-term and short-term basis.

- (ii) Any events that will trigger direct or contingent financial obligation that is material to the company, including any default or acceleration of an obligation;
- (iii) All material off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent obligations), and other relationships of the company with unconsolidated entities or other persons created during the reporting period.

- (iv) Any material commitments for capital expenditures, the general purpose of such commitments, and the expected sources of funds for such expenditures should be described;
- (v) Any known trends, events or uncertainties that have had or that are reasonably expected to have a material favorable or unfavorable impact on net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations should be described. If the registrant knows of events that will cause material change in the relationship between costs and revenues (such as known future increases in cost of labor or materials or price increases or inventory adjustments), the change in the relationship shall be disclosed.
- (vi) Any significant elements of income or loss that did not arise from the registrant's continuing operations;
- (vii) The causes for any material change from period to period which shall include vertical and horizontal analyses of any material item;

The term "material" in this section shall refer to changes or items amounting to five percent (5%) of the relevant accounts or such lower amount, which the registrant deems material on the basis of other factors.

- (viii) Any seasonal aspects that had a material effect on the financial condition or results of operations.

(b) Interim Periods

If interim financial statements are included in the registration statement or report, provide a comparable discussion that will enable the reader to assess material changes in financial condition and results of operations since the end of the last fiscal year and for the comparable interim period in the preceding year.
