

ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTOR PROTECTION DEPARTMENT

SEC ADVISORY AGAINST XM

This is to inform the public that the online investment trading platform XM is NOT AUTHORIZED TO SELL or OFFER SECURITIES to the public in the Philippines.

Based on information gathered, XM [<https://www.xm.com/>] describes itself as being an exchange platform where the public can “Trade Forex, Crypto CFDs, Stocks, Metals and More.”

Management System
ISO 9001:2015
www.iivp.com
ID 9108653781

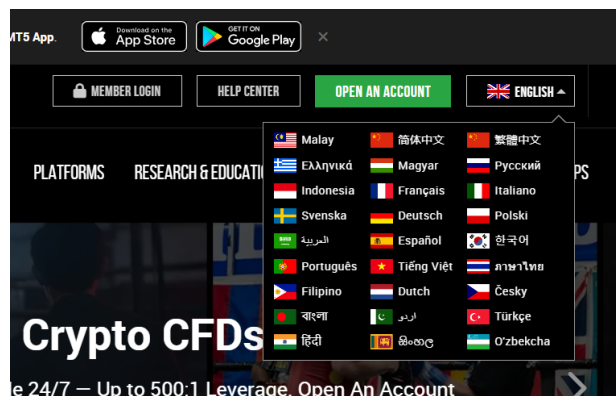

XM's services include 1,000 + trading instruments, 24/7 trading of Crypto CFDs, 1000:1 leverage, and bonuses up to $10,500 US dollars. It also offers a copy trading feature wherein the public may opt to copy any and all the trades of a popular trader.

The banner features four main statistics: 1000+ Trading Instruments, 24/7 Trading Crypto CFDs, 1000:1 Leverage, and Bonus up to $10,500. Below these are two dark blue buttons: 'Compete to Win a Meetup' and 'Trade Like an Expert in No'.

XM launched promotional campaigns on various social media websites and applications to entice its target market, including Filipinos, to engage in trading activities using its platform. Its platform may be accessed through its main website <https://www.xm.com/> as well as through its mobile applications.

XM's operations allow Filipinos to create user accounts on their platform for the purpose of investing and trading unregistered investment products.

While it appears that the operator of the platform is a registered broker/dealer in different jurisdictions, in the Philippines, before securities and investment products can be sold or offered to the public, the Securities Regulation Code requires:

1. That the securities being offered are registered with the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). This involves filing an application for registration and providing detailed information about the securities, including the issuance price, the use of the proceeds, and the nature of the securities;
2. That the securities must be issued by a corporation or a licensed dealer, both of which should be registered in the Philippines; and
3. That the issuer possesses a secondary license to sell or offer securities to the public.

Based on the Commission's database, the operator of the platform XM is NOT REGISTERED as a corporation in the Philippines and OPERATES WITHOUT THE NECESSARY LICENSE AND/OR AUTHORITY to sell or offer any form of securities as defined under Section 3.1 of the Securities Regulation Code (SRC), to engage in the business of buying or selling securities or as a broker or dealer as provided under Section 28 of the SRC, or to create or operate an exchange for the buying and selling of securities as provided under Section 32 of the SRC.

In view thereof, the public is hereby advised to exercise caution before investing in these kinds of unregistered online investment platforms and their representatives. In dealing with these unregistered platforms, the Commission reiterates its Advisory entitled: "Advisory against Dealing with Non-Registered Foreign Entities, Organizations, and Corporations."

In addition, those who act as salesmen, brokers, dealers or agents, representatives, promoters, recruiters, influencers, endorsers, and enablers of the XM platform in selling or convincing people to invest in this platform within the Philippines even through online means may be held criminally liable under Section 28 of the SRC and be penalized with a maximum fine of Five Million Pesos (P 5,000,000.00) or imprisonment of Twenty One (21) years or both pursuant to Section 73 of the SRC (SEC vs. Oudine Santos G.R. No. 195542, 19 March 2014).

For the guidance of the public.

Makati City, 14 MARCH 2024.
